

WILLIAM BRYDEN.

FEBRUARY 29, 1840.

Read, and laid on the table.

Mr. RUSSELL, from the Committee of Claims, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee of Claims, to whom was referred the petition of William Bryden, claiming compensation for a horse, &c., impressed into the military service of the United States, in September, 1814, make the following report:

This claim was first presented to Congress, and in the House of Representatives referred to the Committee of Claims at the 1st session of the 23d Congress, and an unfavorable report made thereon, which may be found in the 3d volume of Reports of Committees, No. 373, of that session. In that report the committee concur, and they have not been able to discover that the objections therein taken to this claim have been obviated, and therefore they offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the prayer of the petitioner ought not to be granted.

Blair & Rives, printers.

WILLIAM BRYDEN

February 29 1810

Read and on the table

Mr. BRYDEN, from the Committee of Claims, made the following

REPORT:

The Committee of Claims, to whom was referred the petition of William B. Bryden, claiming compensation for a horse &c. introduced into the military service of the United States in September 1814, with the following report:

This claim was first presented to Congress, and in the House of Representatives referred to the Committee of Claims at the 1st session of the 23d Congress, and an unfavorable report made thereon, which was passed in the 3d volume of Reports of Committees No 313, of that session. It was reported the committee cannot, and they have not been able to discover that the objections therein taken to this claim have been obviated, and therefore they offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the prayer of the petitioner ought not to be granted.